

Report on “Forensic Juriscon”

Oct 2018

The KEM hospital, Parel Mumbai, had organized two days “Forensic Juriscon 2018” conference at TATA Memorial Cancer Research Hospital conference Hall, Parel Mumbai on dated 27th and 28th Oct 2018. The Institute of Forensic Science had the opportunity to be one of the members of organizing committee. The department of Forensic Biology, Cyber Forensics and Forensic Psychology actively participated in this event. The teachers and students presented poster and oral presentations about their research work. Alumni of the institute also participated in poster and oral presentations. The department of Digital and Cyber Forensic presented three papers:

“Effect of Malafic program in Diagnostic Medical Treatment” by Ms. Neeta Khobragade, Mr. Milind Meshram (Asst. Prof.), Mr. Ramesh Ogania (CEO, Hexa Digital Forensic Corporation)

“Securing Electronic Health Records Using Blockchain Technology” by Shreya Khochare (MSc. II Student) and Ms. Neeta Khobragade.

The Paper “Forensic Significance of Cardiac Implantable Device – Pacemaker “ presented by Ms. Anju Bhatt got the first prize in oral presentation.

From the department of Forensic Psychology, a poster was presented on the theme “Sexual Polymorphism as an identity” by Ms. Akanchha Kumari, Ms. Didhiti Godawarikar, Shantanu Gadade, Prashant Kumar Panda, guided by Assistant Professor and HOD, Mrs. Bhagyashree Kulkarni.

M.Sc. Part 1 students Siddhi Kuperkar and Parul Wadbhimse – presented Poster on Bloodstain pattern and its classification.

M.Sc. Part 2 and T.Y.B.Sc. student- Ms. Manasi Shewale and Ms. Shruti Desai- – presented Poster on Chromium Toxicity in India.

